

1962	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hungry Horse Gallery established by Betty O'Neill, 47 Windsor St, Paddington, above Hungry Horse restaurant. • Chair in Australian literature established, University of Sydney.¹ IMAGE AU223 • Annandale Imitation Realists show, Museum of Modern Art, Melbourne² • Subterranean Imitation Realists show, Rudy Komon Gallery Sydney • William Dobell's Study of woman in restaurant reaches record Australian price of 4500 guineas at auction. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cahill Expressway opened in Sydney. • Australian military advisers sent to Vietnam. • Cuban Missile Crisis. • Civil Rights riots in Mississippi when James Meredith denied admission to university. • Bob Dylan's 'Blowin' in the Wind' is a big hit.
------	---	---

¹ G.A.Wilkes appointed. This was the first chair in Australian literature in the country.

² See Margaret Plant essay on the Annandale Imitation Realists in: Irreverent Sculpture (Monash University Gallery, 1985)