

The Great Divide

Table of Contents

Ian Burn, Nigel Lendon, Terry Smith: Why is Australia a World of Absolute Silence?	5-19
Ian Burn, Nigel Lendon, Terry Smith: Why do they Keep on Coming?	20-25
Jeff Stewart: The Art Establishment and Working Class Culture	26-31
Cuban Posters: Photographs by Elliot Lavis, Michie Gleason, David Hay and Dany Torsh in Cuba, March 1977	32-34
Dallas Smythe: Socialist and Capitalist Realism in the Arts and Sciences	35-43
Ann Stephen, Charles Merewether: The Myer Foundation Report on Private Sector Support for the Arts	45-47
Terry Smith: The Story of Cur, Piggy and the Prefect	48-53
3ZZ Producer's Statement	55
George Zangalis: The 3ZZ Experience - The Minorities Versus the Fraser Government for Freedom of Speech	56-57
Mark Edmonds: Public Broadcasting in Melbourne	58-59
Martin Muntz: 3CR - 'There was a Movement at the Station...'	59-61
Ann Stephen: Who's Eating Australia?	62-65
David Griffiths: Review of Australia's Media Monopolies by Humphrey McQueen	65-66
John Hughes: The Government Menace - Dismantling the Melbourne Filmmakers Co-Op	67-69
Sharon Firebrace Nindeebiya Aboriginal Workshop	69-71
Aboriginal Land Rights Posters	72-75
Deane Harwick: Melbourne Murals - Between the Wars 1924-1940	76-82
John Nixon: The Reactionary	83
Geoff Hogg: Review of Towards a People's Art - The Contemporary Mural Movement by Eva Cockcroft, John Weber, James Cockcroft	84
Charlotte Clements, Magnus Beugglar: Community Art Workers	85-88
Sandy Kirby: Permanent Red Group	89-92
Julian Pefanis: Melbourne Poster Workshop	93-94
Charles Merwether: Art Education Under Capitalism	95
Charles Merewether: Me and Daphne: Political Cinema	96-97
Ian Burn, Nigel Lendon: Defeat Formalism in Art	98-101
Bonita Ely: Sexism and Education	102-103
Bonita Ely & Anna Havana: Women's Art Program	103
Elizabeth Nettleton: A Critique of the Victorian Ministry of the Arts - Tapestry Workshop	104-106
John Wolseley: The Woodchip Industry and Protest Art	108-110
Norman Day: Architecture for People	111-114
Karen Barrett: Debney Park Cable Television - The Beginning of the End	115-116
Papers Presented at the Adelaide Seminar: The Role and Direction of Public Art:
1. Noel Sheridan: Who Decides Which Artist for Any Specific Project?	117-118
2. Brian Medlin: Culture, Ideology and Power	119-123
3. Donald Brook: The Nature of Art and Some Implications for Public Policy	124-127
4. Julie Ewington: The South Australian Government Cultural Policy	127-130
Chips Mackinolt: The Tin Sheds: A Rose by Another Name?	131-139

Bernard Smith: The Mode of Production Best Suited to Human Beings	140-141
Lawrence Bendle: Art and Leisure	142-144
Peter Watkins: Uranium and the State	145-147
Bill Garner: Political Theatre: Is it Obsolete?	148-149
Uranium Comic	150-152