

Sit with your eyes closed. Estimate the time elapsing. Think of nothing but the time elapsing. When a time interval that you estimate to have been exactly 30 mins has elapsed, open your eyes. Check your watch. If your estimate is incorrect, commence the work again.

Source: Ian Milliss, 1971